FOOD

The secret-formula dough of the Roman-style pizza at Palà makes for what its husband-and-wife owners claim is a healthier, less filling crust. The proof is in the pie—offbeat combinations like pumpkin and pancetta with scamorza cheese, and smoked cod with hummus and mint. Presumably, that leaves more room for fritti, antipasti, and dessert (198 Allen St., nr. Stanton St.; 212-614-7252).
